

Hello, Juniors,

Your summer assignment is to purchase and read the novel To Live by Yu Hua, translated from the Chinese by Michael Berry. ISBN: 978-1400031863 I will have local bookstores order this book; it's also available new and used via Amazon.

As you read, please think about the roles of luck and fate in the novel, and mark passages that you find relate to these two concepts.

We will have a quiz during our first days back to be sure you have read. Enjoy the book and the break! --
Ms. Grant
