University of Virginia Jefferson Scholars Program

The Jefferson Scholars Foundation seeks to find high school seniors who possess exceptional ability in leadership and scholarship and who show promise of making a significant contribution –both to the University community as students and to society at large as graduates.

Jefferson Scholarships are full scholarships to the University and include tuition, living expenses and enrichment. They are granted to individuals on the basis of merit alone. The Class of 2021 award is projected to total more than $240,000 for non-Virginians. More information here: http://www.jeffersonscholars.org/scholarship. Signature School has been invited to nominate 1 student for this program. Talk to Ms. Grogan if interested in applying.

Horatio Alger Association Scholarship

For students with financial need who have exhibited integrity and perseverance in overcoming personal adversity. Award amounts from $7,000 - $25,000. Applications open through October 25.

More information at scholars.horatioalger.org.

Indiana Award for Aspirations in Computing

This award recognizes young women at the high-school level in Indiana for their computing-related achievements and interests. Winners receive cash, gifts, plaques for themselves and their schools, and scholarship offers from several Indiana universities.

Visit www.ncwit.org/award for detailed instructions and eligibility requirements. Deadline is November 7th at 11:59pm.

Prudential Spirit of Community Scholarship

For students making a difference in their communities through volunteer work (all Signature School students!).

- State Honorees receive an award of $1,000, an engraved silver medallion, and an allexpense-paid trip with a parent or guardian to Washington, D.C., for national recognition events.
- National Honorees receive an additional award of $5,000, an engraved gold medallion, a crystal trophy for their schools or organizations, and a $5,000 grant from The Prudential Foundation for a non-profit, charitable organization of their choice.

More information at this link http://spirit.prudential.com/ and in the Student Services Office. Deadline is Nov. 8.

Tri Kappa 2017 Scholarship

The local Evansville chapter (Epsilon Theta) of Tri Kappa has scholarships available for high school seniors pursuing post-secondary education in the 2017-2018 school year. Interested applicants may apply for one of two scholarships to be awarded in the amount of $1,000 each.

Applications must be postmarked by December 15, 2016.

Columbia University Research Journal Submission Opportunity

CUSJ is a professional-level, open-access science journal that is committed to publishing manuscripts of the highest quality, resulting from significant scientific research or outstanding scientific analysis. Each paper published undergoes a double-blind peer review process. This is an opportunity for high school students to publish scholarly research articles in all fields, particularly the sciences. Those interested in applying must submit:

--A one-page research paper of their desired topic
--Release form with permission for publication from their respective Principal Investigator or Mentor
--Photograph and short biography

For more information, visit http://crsj.org.
